Magalloway School
The Grammar School Graduation and Reception at the Magalloway Town Hall, May 31, marked the closing of another school year. The graduating class consisted of Gertrude Ripley, Carl Littlehale, Ruth Lanceter and Eunice Linnell. They were assisted in the program by the other grammar grades and the primary school.
Supt. A. H. Tuck presented the diplomas and an interesting talk which held a good message for the graduates as well as the undergraduates.
The hall was decorated in the class colors, red and white. The Japanese idea was carried out which was in keeping with the Japanese play given by the primary school.
Music for the dance was furnished by Hart's Orchestra and the Grand March was led by members of the graduating class.
Friday June 1, the entire school held their annual picnic at Acre's Pond in Error. They were joined by Mrs. Lillian Ripley teacher of the Wentworth Location school, her pupils and superintendent, Mr. McCurdy. A good time was reported.
Myrtle Lancaster from the primary room was the only pupil with a perfect attendance record for the year. She was neither tardy nor absent.
A great deal of interest was shown in the primary room in the filling of bird and flower calendars. The pupils who reported the greatest number of birds and brought in the greatest number of flowers, were given the calendars. Cleo Linnell, grade IV, received the flower calendar and Elizabeth Cameron, grade II, received the bird calendar, while Dorothy Harvey, grade IV, received honorable mention for her list of birds.

AMENDED BILL
STATE OF MAINE
County of Oxford, ss. Supreme Judicial Court
Claire S. Eddy, William O. in Equity
Robbins and Frank A. Robbins vs.
Frank L. Curtis, Claire Curtis, Henry Curtis, Florence Dorothy Curtis, Mildred Sablin, James Warren Sablin, George Curtis, Gladys Curtis and Edward Curtis.
To the Supreme Judicial Court, in Equity:
Claire S. Eddy, of Long Beach, in the State of California, William O. Eddy, of said Long Beach, Evelyn Robbins, of Canaan, in the State of New Hampshire, and Frank A. Robbins, of said Canaan, complain against Frank L. Curtis, of Cambridge, in the State of Massachusetts, Claire Curtis, of Cambridge, Henry Curtis, of Springfield, in the State of Massachusetts, Florence Dorothy Curtis, of Lakewood, in the State of Ohio, James Warren Sablin, of said Lakewood, George Curtis, of Syracuse, in the State of New York, Gladys Curtis, of said Syracuse, and Edward Curtis, of Cambridge, in the State of Massachusetts, and says:
1. The plaintiffs, Claire S. Eddy, and Evelyn Robbins are seized in fee simple and as tenant in common of, and in a certain lot of land, situate in Dixfield in the County of Oxford, State of Maine, to wit: A certain lot or parcel of land with the buildings thereon situated on the northerly side of Main Street, in Dixfield Village, and bounded and described as follows, viz: Beginning at a point at the southwesterly corner of the Dr. W. M. Pease home lot; thence westerly along said Main Street forty-eight and one-half (48 1/2) feet to the June 1st house lot; thence northerly along said Main Street to land of land of George Ricker; thence easterly and bounded by said Ricker's land to land of H. O. Stann; thence southerly and bounded by said Stann's land and land of W. M. Pease to point of starting.
2. The buildings on said land consist of a one and one-half story house which covers nearly all of said lot, by reason whereof said house is so conspicuous in the village and separate occupancy, and said house and land are not divisible without greatly impairing the value, and the whole of said land and real estate would be much more beneficial and less injurious to all persons interested therein.
3. The said Claire S. Eddy, wife of William O. Eddy, is seized in fee simple and as tenant in common, of one undivided fourth part, Evelyn Robbins, wife of Frank A. Robbins, of one undivided twelfth part, Frank L. Curtis, husband of Claire Curtis, of one undivided fourth part, Henry Curtis, husband of Florence Dorothy Curtis, of one undivided eighth part, Mildred Sablin, wife of James Warren Sablin, of one undivided eighth part, George Curtis, husband of Gladys Curtis, of one undivided twelfth part and Edward Curtis, unmarried, of one undivided twelfth part of said property.
Wherefore the plaintiff prays:
1. That the whole of said real estate may be sold and the proceeds thereof divided among the respective owners, their wives and husbands, according to the share of each.
2. And that the plaintiff may have such other and further relief as the nature of the case may require.
And may it please this honorable court to issue its subpoena to the said Claire Curtis, Florence Dorothy Curtis, James Warren Sablin, George Curtis, Gladys Curtis and Edward Curtis, commanding them to appear before this court and answer to this bill of complaint with in one month from the time service is made on said defendants, and abide the orders and decrees of this court thereon.
Dated this tenth day of January, A. D. 1928.
ALBERT BELLEVUE,
Attorney for Plaintiffs.
(Seal)
Oxford, ss. Supreme Judicial Court
Claire S. Eddy et al. vs. Frank L. Curtis et al.
In the above entitled suit, it appearing that Gladys Curtis one of the within named defendants whose residence is unknown and can not be found after diligent search,
NOW THEREFORE:
On application of the plaintiffs, it is ordered that Gladys Curtis, one of the defendants in said suit heretofore mentioned, appear before our Supreme Judicial Court within and for said County of Oxford within three months after the date of the last publication of this notice, viz: June 22, 1928, and then and there answer to said bill of complaint and do and receive what said Court shall then and there consider in that behalf.
And it is further Ordered that the plaintiffs in said suit shall within thirty days from the date of this order publish an attested copy of the bill and this order thereon three weeks successively in the Norway Advertiser, a newspaper printed in Norway in said County.
Witness, DON SCOTT Wilson, Chief Justice of our said Court, at Paris, the fourth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight.
DONALD B. PARTRIDGE, Clerk.
A true copy of the bill and order of Court thereon.
Attest:
